

The 23rd International Conference on Difference Equations and Applications (ICDEA 2017) will be held at West University of Timișoara, Romania, under the auspices of the International Society of Difference Equations \(ISDE\), from July 24 to July 28, 2017.

ICDEA 2017 aims to bring together researchers and scientists from around the world, to present, discuss and offer solutions in the fields of Difference Equations, Discrete Dynamical Systems and their applications to various sciences. The purpose of the conference is to encourage and to promote the dialogue between scientists in these fields and to accelerate the progress in some of the most active research areas nowadays.

ICDEA 2017 will host the general meeting of the International Society of Difference Equations.
